4. Proposals must be received by the Region A Partnership for Children no later than January 29, 2027 at 5 PM.

* Note: Proposals will be accepted for two fiscal years of activity, however no funding is guaranteed by the Region A Partnership for Children (RAPC) without approval by the Region A Partnership for Children Board of Directors and the North Carolina Partnership for Children. All funding is subject to monies appropriated by the NC General Assembly. Further, contracts will be issued for approved activities during one fiscal year of funding that will be subject to amendment or termination depending on available funding and performance by the direct service provider. Service providers may be required to submit a full proposal for funding in the 2028-2029 fiscal year for continued funding depending upon the requirements of the North Carolina Partnership for Children and the RAPC Board.
